BISHOP BARAGA CATHOLIC SCHOOL BATTLE OF THE BANDS

CHEBOYGAN, MI: Recently, Jason Luttrell was principal for a day at Bishop Baraga Catholic School. He won that honor by being the successful bidder at the School's annual St. Patrick's Day Party and Auction in March 2010.

During the day, Principal Luttrell oversaw many student competitions requiring reading skills, hand eye coordination, and team work. The highlight was a school-wide Battle of the Bands. That competition was won by a quartet of 6th grade students: Henry Grondin on bass, Jack Ingalsbe on guitar, Matt Gridale on drums, and singer Morgan Goodrich. The group performed "Who Are You Going to Call?" from the movie Ghostbusters.

Accompanying this release is a photograph of Principal Luttrell and the winning band members.

Bishop Baraga Catholic School was established in 1856 by Bishop Frederic Baraga. It has been in its new building located at the corner of Western and Lincoln Avenues since September 2005. Learn more about the school at www.bishopbaraga.com.
